

Pilate's Predicament

John 19:1-16

I. The Cruelty of the Romans.

Jesus, the innocent sin-bearer, wore the crown of _____, that we the guilty, might wear a crown of _____.

II. The Innocence of Jesus.

It is only fitting that Pilate, the one at whose hand the Lamb of God would be slain, should declare him to be spotless and without _____.

III. The Sovereignty of God.

There can be nothing more terrible than for a person's mind to be so shut by his _____ and arrogance that there is nothing Jesus can say to him that will make any difference.

IV. The Blasphemy of the Jews.

Having rejected their _____ King, they were left only with Caesar as King.
